

A Collection of Documentary Shorts to Stir the Activist to Empathy and Then to Action

Screening: 7:00 pm and 8:30 pm
Lower Level Amphitheater

Caroline

When plans fall through, a six-year-old is faced with a big responsibility on a hot Texas day.
Written and directed by Logan George & Celine Held

Resistance

This film is a protest song for the modern era, but its sentiment is focused more on uplifting optimism than aggression and conflict.
Produced by Johnathan Mahan and Donnie Stemp

Legalize Equality

Excerpted from the award-winning documentary, Equal Means Equal, with new footage and commentary, makes the case for ERA in a concise and compelling manner.
Produced by filmmaker, activist and actress Kamala Lopez

IF

A short film about breaking the cycle of homelessness.
Produced and Directed by Noah Berlow

In White

A short film about living a life expected of you versus a life you choose.
Written and directed by Dania Bdeir

Human Trafficking

A short PSA about the reality of human trafficking from Northern Virginia Human Trafficking Initiative (NOVA-HTI)
Produced by NOVA-HTI

RESISTERHOOD

This powerful documentary captures the stories of everyday Americans who became grassroots activists working tirelessly to defend our democracy and stop the erosion of our civil rights.
Produced and directed by Cheryl Jacobs Crim

Free to Laugh

Free to Laugh is about the power of comedy after prison. Female ex-cons hone their comedy chops through workshops and performing
Producer Elease Lui and Director Laura Everly

